Horley Cricket, Hockey & Squash Club
The Code of Conduct

Members are reminded that the Horley Cricket & Hockey Club is a Private Club built up over the years by the Members for the benefit of all Membership, the object of The Club being the promotion of cricket, hockey, squash and other games.

This is your Club and it is up to you to ensure that it continues to progress, and that no person is allowed to degrade or damage the property or interests of the club.

Members are expected to comply with the rules of the Club which are made for the benefit of all Members. If a rule conflicts with your own personal interests, it must be remembered that the wish of the majority is paramount.

The Management Committee is a voluntary body elected by the Membership at the Annual General Meeting each year, and their commitment to the Club and the Membership should be respected for that. It should always be remembered that the Management Committee's decisions are made for the benefit of the Club in general and not for the convenience of the Management Committee.

Guests are the responsibility of the Member introducing that person/s and are expected to conform to the same standards as that expected of a Member.

Children in the Club are welcome but are subject to the Licensing Laws and must at all times be under the control of the responsible adult/s

Members are expected to ensure that their personal conduct and that of their guest/s is at all times of the highest standard both inside and outside the Club. They should never cause distress, embarrassment or inconvenience to others whether a Club Member or not.

Obscene language and rowdy behaviour will not be tolerated.

Abuse of Club property will be strictly dealt with.

When playing sport, Members are expected to comply with the dress code of that sport and additionally adhere to any defined Code of Conduct of the relevant sports section.

Within the Clubhouse appropriate dress must be worn at all times. The wearing of sleeveless vests, torn or dirty clothing, baseball hats and other similar headwear is not viewed to comply with that definition.

Failure to comply with the above Code of Practice will not be tolerated and may well culminate in the Member being asked to explain his/her behaviour to the Management Committee with the ultimate sanction being that the Member will be asked to resign their membership. The detail of this procedure is set out in Rule 17 "Conduct of Member"

Your compliance with the foregoing will be much appreciated by all, as we want this Club to continue to have the reputation of being a friendly family club within its immediate community.
